STUDENT CAMPUS

Dear Stakeholder,

This has been a landmark year for us. As a group, we have been able to achieve several milestones. Texila American University (TAU) Consortium is reimagining what it is to be a university in the 21st century: pioneering research and innovation, outstanding teaching, and a presence across the globe that fosters the international, interconnected perspective so necessary in our modern world.

Technology is a powerful tool for transforming learning. It helps affirm and advance relationships between educators and students, reinvent our approaches to learning and collaboration, reduce long-standing equity and accessibility gaps, and adapt learning experiences to meet the needs of all learners. With technology, educators are collaborating in learning, seeking new knowledge and constantly acquiring new skills alongside their students. Education stakeholders should commit to working together to use technology to improve global education.

Technology is already sweeping through classrooms as educators and developers create more and more products designed to enhance education. New technologies like AI, machine learning, and educational software aren't just changing the field for students, they are shaking up the role of educators, creating philosophical shifts in approaches to teaching, and remodelling the classroom. As a part of TAU Consortium, you will be an integral part of the group's commitment to diversity and globalization. Together, we will become a stronger conglomerate.

S.P. Saju Bhaskar
